

Janet Stauffacher - Vintage Vogue

35th International Quilt Festival - Houston, Texas

Featuring over 365 hands-on classes, 27 lectures, numerous special events, and a renowned faculty of 119 experienced teachers. Select from a variety of beginning to advanced classes on every aspect of quilting plus other subjects. Also special exhibits, shopping, and more! Classes and events begin October 12.

Contact Quilts, Inc. for class registration and festival information.

I'll be teaching the following classes at the Quilt Festival in Houston this fall.

452 - Victorian Cherub Heart Brooch

$50 includes kit fee

An antiqued silver-plated jewelry finding with two smiling cherubs is the base. This heart-shaped floral brooch becomes an elegant addition to your accessories.

Thursday, Oct. 15th, 9am-noon

Pattern/kit available at Vintage Vogue if you cannot attend the Quilt Festival.

743 - The Basics of French Beaded Flowers

$50 includes kit fee

With the same four techniques the Victorians used to make bouquets of seed beads, learn to make flowers with sharp points, smooth curves and floss-wrapped stems.

Saturday, Oct. 17th, 9am-noon

540 - Friday Sampler - Vintage Roses

$30

Over 30 Festival teachers at separate tables around the room offer continuous demonstrations of particular techniques and methods. Students circulate around the room informally. Enrollees receive a booklet of one-page handouts from each participating teacher.

Friday, Oct. 16th, 10am-noon

Pattern/kit available at Vintage Vogue if you cannot attend the Quilt Festival.

764 - Here's My Heart Scissors Sheath

$55 includes kit fee

With wool felt, silk embroidery ribbon, buttonhole twist and floral beads, fashion a sheath to hold your favorite pair of needlework scissors that's sewn together with a three-bead edge.

Saturday, Oct. 17th, 2pm-5pm

Pattern/kit available at Vintage Vogue if you cannot attend the Quilt Festival.

618 - Miss Mary's Big Berry Pincushion

$55 includes kit fee

Learn the basics of French beaded flowers as you make the stem and berry cap for a hand-dyed silk velvet berry pincushion that's embellished with Czech seed beads.

Friday, Oct. 16th, 6pm-9pm

Pattern available at Vintage Vogue if you cannot attend the Quilt Festival.

820 - Sunday Sampler - Rick Rack Roses

$30

Twenty-nine Festival teachers at separate tables around the room offer continuous demonstrations of particular techniques and methods. Students circulate around the room informally. Enrollees receive a booklet of one-page handouts from each participating teacher.

Sunday, Oct. 18th, 11:30am-1:30pm

When you have time to browse, please visit Vintage Vogue.